LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT SECRETARIAT

Passes orders prescribing additional rules for recruitment of officials as Executive Officers and Assessing Officers.

READ—

Government Order No. L. 10088-110—Ml. 166-37-5, dated 17th June 1938, issuing orders regarding the formation of a separate cadre of Chief and Assessing Officers for work in the Town and Minor Municipalities and prescribing rules for regulating their recruitment.

2. Government Order No. L. 2550-72—Ml. 80-40-40, dated 1st September 1942, directing among other things that the post of Chief and Assessing Officers be treated as tenure ones.

3. Government Order No. L. 395-405—Ml. 10-52-1, dated 5th April 1952, passing orders revising the scales of pay of the Executive (Chief) and Assessing Officers employed in Town Municipalities.

4. Un-official Note No. 97—51-52, dated 7th August 1952, of the Secretary, Public Service Commission, furnishing the opinion of the Public Service Commission for recruitment of officials as Executive and Assessing Officers.

ORDER NO. L. 13438-572—ML. 10-52-138, DATED BANGALORE, THE 15TH NOVEMBER 1952.

For purposes of recruitment of officials for inclusion in the eligibility list of Chief Officers (Executive Officers) and Assessing Officers, the following rules were laid down in Government Order No. L. 10088-110—Ml. 166-37-5, dated 17th June 1938 :—

(a) A list of candidates eligible for appointment as Chief (Executive) Officers and Assessing Officers shall be prepared from among the officials of the following Departments :—

(i) Revenue Department—Revenue Inspectors and Taluk Sheristedars.
(ii) Public Health Department—Sanitary Inspectors.
(iii) Public Works Department—Overseers and Sub-Overseers.
(iv) General and Revenue Secretariat—First and Second Division Clerks.
(v) City and Town Municipalities and District Boards.

(b) Their pay shall not be less than Rs. 60 per mensem.

(c) The candidates should pass the Accounts Examination and Examination in Local Self-Government, Law and Accounts and should have special aptitude for executive work.

(d) Persons who are eligible for appointment as Amildars and Deputy Amildars are also eligible for inclusion in the list, provided they undertake to be in Municipal Service for at least three years.

2. In Government Order dated 5th April 1952, a separate cadre of Executive Officers and Assessing Officers has been created on a permanent basis, the appointments to these posts being made on a quasi-permanent basis. The grades of these officers have also been revised from Rs. 130–8–170 (First Grade) and Rs. 100–6–130 (Second Grade) to Rs. 150–10–200 and Rs. 110–8–150, respectively. According to orders of April 1952, officers of the First Grade will be employed in Municipalities with an annual normal income of Rs. 1,00,000 and above, and those of the Second Grade in Municipalities with an annual normal income of Rs. 50,000 and above. It is also ordered that the eligibility list of officials qualified for appointment shall be prepared from time to time in consultation with the Public Service Commission, having regard to the fact that, as these officers are recruited from other departments, their appointments come within the purview of the Public Service Commission.

3. Consequent on the issue of orders dated 5th April 1952, Government have further examined in consultation with the Public Service Commission, the principles to be adopted in preparing the eligibility list of these officers and they are pleased to prescribe the following additional rules for recruitment of officials as Executive and Assessing Officers working in the departments mentioned above :—

(i) The candidate shall have put in the minimum approved service—

(a) of five years if he is a Graduate ;

(b) ten years, if he is a Non-Graduate.

(ii) The age of the official at the time of enlistment shall not be more than forty years.

(iii) Direct appointment of officials from the approved list as Executive and Assessing Officer shall be only to the lower grade of Rs. 110–8–150. Vacancies in the First Grade of Rs. 150–10–200 shall be filled up by promotion of suitable officials working in the lower grade.

(iv) A list of qualified candidates shall be prepared only for the lower grade, subject to the Rules of Recruitment by the Public Service Commission in consultation with the Commissioner for Local Self-Government. The Commissioner for Local Self-Government shall furnish to the Commission a forecast of vacancies in the Second Grade, viz., Rs. 110–8–150 that are likely to occur in the official year. On the basis of this forecast, the Commission shall fix the number of officials to be included in the list and invite applications through the departments concerned. The officers under whom the intending officials are working should scrutinise the applications and forward them to the Public Service Commission, together with their opinion and connected records (including Service Registers and Character Books). The Commission shall interview the officials, if necessary, the Commissioner for Local Self-Government being invited to assist in making the selection.

(v) The names of candidates sent by the Public Service Commission for inclusion in the eligibility list shall be subject to the approval of Government and the list as finally approved shall be sent to the Commissioner for Local Self-Government for making appointments to the Second Grade.

4. The above rules will apply only to the recruitment and filling up of vacancies of Executive Officers that occur hereafter.

A. S. KHALEEL,
Secretary to Government,
Local Self-Government Department.
